invited guests are gathered together where perfect harmony and good feeling prevail, and even the weather itself seems to favor the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. French are to be congratulated upon their success in this first party in their new home.

On the same evening some of the "Green Hill" party of last summer had a pleasant sleigh ride and surprised Mr. Charles Porter and family of Brookton, (of the name of the village), and the weather itself seemed favorable to all the joys of old-fashioned Christmas and New Year's seasons. We wish you a happy and successful and useful New Year, dear GAZETTE, L. P. II.

Karl Braintree.

A heifer of the Jersey breed, belonging to E. A. Newton, Esq., which had been pastured during the summer near Hanover, on land owned by Mr. A. Curtis, of South Abington, broke away from the herd when they were brought home on the 20th of October, and went into the woods, and has been there in a wild condition ever since. Mr. Newton has made many attempts to learn her whereabouts, and lately has been very anxious about her, owing to the inclemency of the weather, and the consequent suffering which the poor animal must have endured. For some days her whereabouts has been known, and on Tuesday morning, Mr. Albert Hobart and two others set out with the determination to catch her, if possible. After considerable time had been spent in exploring the woods, they were at length fortunate in getting a sight of the heifer. This was an exciting event, and a hurried consultation was held, when it was resolved to make a grand Napoleon hunt, and the hunters proceeded, bringing her to bay, and effected her speedy capture in Mr. Cuth Stetson's marsh, near the Weymouth line. Mr. Newton was delighted when she was landed, and the fatigued goose was killed and there was a "feast" all around. We called the next morning, and found the heifer in fine turn-up and lay, and when we put our hand upon her, she looking up seemed to say, "I ain't a fool, but I will not do it again." The clear-headed hunter made a very sensible conclusion for a cow to come to. MAC.

The Brahmins Temperance Union

Held a meeting in the Falmouth church last Sunday evening, an address being given by Rev. Mr. Taylor, pastor of the M. E. Church, South Braintree. The Secretary, Mr. J. B. Taylor, of East Bridgewater, said Nash was chosen Socy's prophet. No business of especial importance was transacted, except the clearing of the record, and rendering suitable music. The lecture of Mr. Taylor is pronounced to be one of a very high character.

SOUTH WEYMOUTH.

Savings Bank.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the South Weymouth Savings Institution was held at the bank Monday evening Jan. 1st. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year—President, Albert Tirrell; Vice President, Ora White; Trustees—Albert Tirrell, Ora White, J. S. Cobb, Jacob Lund, T. J. Nash, Joseph Dyer, Eli T. Joy, R. F. Wilby, D. S. Mumford, C. C. Thayer, Jasot Wolcott, William Dyer, Eben Sherman, C. C. Blanchard.

Albert Tirrell, Ora White, Ira J. Lund, Dea. J. S. Cobb, and C. C. Blanchard, were chosen as a board of investment.

The trustees declared a dividend of two and one half per cent semi-annual, and set apart six per cent guarantee fund, leaving a surplus of $718,600. Deposits increased. The amount of deposits at the annual meeting Jan. 1st, 1876, was $338,237.89; the amount Jan. 1st, 1877, was $757,557.15, showing a gain during the year of $37,303.26. As the books of the bank are not made up till the 12th of January, a perfect statement cannot be made now, but it may interest depositors to know the bank is increased.

In Bank Stock.               $443,207.00, Real Estate,                     4,203.28, Notes,                          56,003.27, Mortgages,                   171,882.25.

We feel the affairs of the Bank are conducted on a most economical basis, the expense for the year being only $830.20; and in view of the depression of business and the uncertainty withdrawn of deposits by many, the bank has yet made a steady gain, showing the confidence that is felt in its management.

Died.

This is the fourth child Mr. Bates has been called to leave just after active career in manhood, womanhood, three of them by consumption, the disease of which Ada died.

ELLIOT'S LETTER.
On Time.
Every one appreciates the discomfort of waiting in a railroad station for a belated train, and most of us have equal occasion to remember regretfully the many minutes of (impatient) waiting we have spent in loitering about for a tardy friend to put in an appearance at some appointed rendezvous. Punctuality is a cardinal virtue in business life, and it may be said with truth that it is not alone the early bird that catches the worm, but the punctual bird, as well. If every one would endeavor to keep his or her appointments as nearly upon the minute agreed upon as possible, a vast deal of valuable time, to say nothing of internal (and sometimes external) blasphemy would be saved. Be on time, if possible.
Another Drift.
Notwithstanding the hopes that were entertained concerning the elaborate and substantial building which was built at the Thayer Academy at the time the cellar for that edifice was dug, it has been found inadequate, owing to the springs nature of the soil, for removing the floods of water deposited by a sudden and heavy rain, and a new and additional drain, about 1100 feet in length, is to be commenced at once.
Its cost will be between $800 and $900 and it is intended to have it in working order by March 15.
Railroad Employees' Hall.
The second half of the season of the employees of the Old Colony Railroad came off very successfully at the Town Hall, Friday evening. The weather was favorable, and the attendance consequently large, including visitors from all the principal roads running out of Boston. The floor director was Mr. H. G. Burman, assisted by Messrs.
W. P. Darypny, M. E. Berry, E. W.
Graves, B. H. Woodman, D. R. Peckham, J. W. Burman, and E. A. Adams, as ad-jutors. The band, of Brockton, furnished excellent music.
Lecture.
To speak of two lectures as a "course" seems to the writer to be rather straining a point, but never mind—that's what the South Braintree Methodist society are going to have in their church. On Wednesday evening, Rev. J. H. Kingle, of Charlestown, lectured upon "The Model Man," and on the evening of the 7th proximo, Rev.
H. R. Merrill, of Boston, will speak upon "Leisure Hours."
I. O. G. T.
On Tuesday evening Unity Lodge, of Good Templars welcomed a large crowd of members of Quincy, Weymouth and Randolph lodges at Grand Army Hall, South Braintree, and a social and business gathering was held and a general good time enjoyed in.
Surprise.
Mr. and Mrs. William P. Bishop were "surprised" by numerous friends on Tuesday evening, and a very enjoyable evening passed by all present.
Grand Army "Light Fantastics." The first of a series of 12 o'clock assemblies under the auspices of Gen. Sylvanus Thayer Post No. 6, A. R., was given in Grand Army Hall, South Braintree, on Wednesday evening, and everybody who attended had a good time.
Rally and Truancy—No Larcin Matter.
Mr. James Larkin, employed in the Old Colony rail shop, in South Braintree, has left foot considerably injured by the fall of a heavy rail upon it on Monday afternoon. It will be "laid up" about a week.
Entertainment.
Last Wednesday evening an entertainment, as announced last week, was given in Lyceum Hall, under the auspices of the Parsonage Association. The committee hoped to be able to have a lecture from Mr. Ben. Tower, a young lawyer who has recently come among us, to make the chief feature of the programme; but Mr.
Tower's business engagements made it impossible for him to meet the wishes of the committee in this respect, so the whole burden fell upon those who only expected to be called upon to fill up the chinks in the evening's entertainment, viz., Mrs.
Geo. O. Wales, Mr. Nathaniel Thayer, and Mrs. F. W. Holbrook.
The entertainment opened with a song by Mr. Nathaniel Thayer, which was handsomer than it was well received. Mrs. Holbrook then read a chapter from "My Opinions and Hopes of Hobbies," by Josiah Allen's wife. Mr. Thayer then sang again, and received a hearty encore, to which he kindly responded by another song. Mrs. Wales being called upon by the President of the evening, Josephine Shaw, Esq., read "The Lord of Burleigh," from Tennyson, and "Signs and Omens," both with excellent effect. Mr. Thayer sang, accompanying himself upon the organ, "All for Jesus," and nothing was rendered more effectively during the evening than that simple revival hymn.
R. Elmer Morrison, Esq., accompanied Mr. Thayer in his songs upon the organ.
After this singing, Mrs. Holbrook read "John's Monument" and "How he Saved St. Michael's," and another song from Mr.
Thayer followed. Mr. Wales then read "Skinner's Lesson's Title," and "Dead as a Post," the latter creating much merriment.
A song from Mr. Thayer closed the entertainment, which was pronounced by a small, but appreciative audience, to be very satisfactory.
Temperance Union Meeting.
Friday afternoon the "Woman's Christian Temperance Union" met with Mrs.
F. A. Holbrook. Though there were not a large number present it was a lively meeting, and some important business was done.
Two items are of interest. A committee was appointed to obtain signatures to petitions to Congress and the Legislature for the enactment of a law prohibiting the manufacture, importation, and sale of intoxicating liquors, to be used as a beverage within the United States, Territories and District of Columbia; and for the enactment of a stringent prohibitory law in the state, providing such means as are necessary for its strict enforcement. The petitions were circulated last Sunday in East Braintree, and a large number of signatures obtained, but the work has not been thoroughly done, in North and South Braintree, as yet.
The Union also voted to hold a Norfolk County Convention at an early day, and as soon as it can be arranged to.
A special meeting of the Union is called on Saturday next, in G. A. Hall, Holbrook

Block, at 2 P. M., if the weather is favorable; if not, it will be postponed till Tuesday, at the same hour. All ladies interested in the cause are invited to attend this meeting, whether members of the Union or not. It is hoped that we shall have Mrs. Chapin, the Vice-President for Norfolk Co., with us at that meeting, in arrange with us for the Convention.
Pond Party.
Friday evening there was a pond party at Mr. C. P. Dreyer's residence. Instead of with Miss Sadie Merrill, as announced last week. Quite a nice little sum was realized, and the party was a very successful one.
The Dramatic Entertainment.
Announced for this week Wednesday, will be given next Wednesday evening, in Lyceum Hall.
Bible Lesson.
At the Bible Class Tuesday evening, Mrs. Holbrook read an essay on the bosom for next Sabbath, taking for a subject "Elijah's unwavering faith in God, and implicit obedience to his commands."— An essay was read, from Mr. Adams, a young man from Andover, who was appointed as essayist while on a vacation here a few weeks ago. His essay had been read before a few, but was of sufficient interest to be read for at a full meeting.
It was voted that his essay be read before the school next Sabbath. L. P. H.
Robberies.
Numerous burglaries in this vicinity for a week or two past, commencing with the stealing of robes and harnesses from the stable of Henry A. Johnson, Esq., of East Braintree, the residence of A. W. W.
Stetson's place and robbery of clothing, and entering of the house of Caleb Stec-son, Esq., have been followed by the arrest of Deane Nolan and his son Michael, and the capture of a man named L.
Bain.
EAST BRAINTREE. e Co.
Runaway Accident.
Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock, John Crown's horse ran away on 1 street, throwing Mr. Crown and another man, Horace Richards, out of sleigh. The horse turned up Comm. street, and collided with the fence in front of Mr. Joseph Whitely's house, and the sleigh, and proceeding was stopped.
The driver of the Phx Mills. The 1 received several bad cuts on the legs.
A girl named Doyle received a serious cut on the knee, being struck by the wheels of the sleigh.
The Regular Meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held next Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 25th, at 3 o'clock, at the Town Hall, South Braintree, Mass.
S. H. HARRIS, Secretary.
HINGHAM.
In the District Court Tuesday, before Judge Keith, Lloyd K. Kingle, for the saulting his wife, was fined $5, and costs.
The Massachusetts Cavalry held a graduation at Agricultural Hall, on Friday last.
The attendance was quite large, and consequently a large number participated in the festivities of the occasion. All present had a very good time, and the affair was a success both socially and financially.
Professor Horace H. Lincoln of East Boston, lectured at the Second Unitarian Church last Sunday, and Rev. Mr.
Cook, of Arlington, at the Baptist Church.
The officers of the Hingham Mutual Benefit Society, for the ensuing year are:
President, John Upton; Vice President, Edward Payne; Sec'y, William Baldwin; Treasurer, John Crowne. The election of Trustees was postponed until the February meeting.
The lecture of Rev. A. G. Jennings, in the home course, given in Lincoln Hall, on Thursday evening of last week, upon Alexander Hamilton, was a very interesting account of the life of this great man.
The speaker commenced by giving a history of his life, and the condition of our country at the close of the Revolutionary war. The financial condition was next referred to, and statistics of the public debt given at that time, after which he spoke of Hamilton as a statesman, soldier, lawyer and writer, and gave a very concise account of his duel with Aaron Burr, and closed by briefly referring to his funeral services, in Trinity Church, in New York city, reading an extract of the eulogy delivered by Gen. Morris, of that State.
The teachers and scholars of the Sunday School connected with the St. Paul's Catholic Church, have formed an organization under the name of the Sunday School Library Association, and have made choice of the following officers: President, Wm.
H. Blake; Sec'y, John E. Crowe; Treas., John Morrey; Trustees, Joanna Hawley, Lizzy Jordan and Ellen McCarthy.
The Baptist, Methodist and Congregational churches, are holding union week-evening meetings, at which considerable interest is manifested.
The 25th annual fair of the Fort Hill Cotton Association, took place at Loring-Hall on Wednesday afternoon and evening. The tables were adorned with a large variety of useful and artistic articles, all of which met with a ready sale. The affair was to all appearances eminently a successful one, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion, and everything passed off in a creditable manner, although the attendance was not so large as could be desired. The grand musical entertainment given by the Chaplain of the Fort, assisted by Miss Ida Young and Miss Alice Adams, was highly enjoyed by all present. The evening was closed by the loud cheers which they received.
ROCKLAND.
The High School gave an exhibition in Underwood Hall, Monday evening, Jan.
15th, to obtain funds with which to furnish a room in the High School Building for the performance of Philosophical, Chemical, and Astronomical experiments. The amount realized was very small, owing to the severe character of the weather. But Mr. Stetson, the teacher, promises another at an early date, at which it is hoped a goodly sum will be raised, as the scholars greatly stand in need of the extra contributions.
Rev. Geo. F. Stanton, of South Weymouth, occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church last Sabbath in connection with the society.
The ladies of the G. A. R. sewing circle

Thursday evening, the 15th inst. The most prominent act of the evening was a drama entitled "The One on a Time," which
